To Whom It May Concern,

When we wanted to sell our house quickly we looked at several alternatives. Greg Norman (Creative Alternatives) came up with the best solution. We appreciated his rapid responsiveness, innovation and flexibility in reaching a win-win proposal. Most importantly we were impressed with his integrity and honesty. We did have other offers of similar financial value but they did not engender the same level of trust that we had in Greg.

The whole process from proposal to settlement went without a hitch and without any 'misunderstanding' or hassle. True to his word, Greg delivered what we expected.

Yours sincerely,
